Mount Pleasant News

By O. CHAMBERS

The Usher Board celebrated their Ninth Anniversary the second Sunday. Rev. William Thomas of the C-Street Baptist Church delivered the message. It was very appropriate for the occasion. Everyone enjoyed it.

Last Sunday was our regular church service. Rev. Carlton Jackson of Brookneal was our guest minister. He is the pastor of the Greensprings Baptist Church of Brookneal. His wife and two children accompanied him. The Young Adult Choir of our church gave beautiful music with Mr. Moore.

We are glad our pianist's wife, Mrs. Alice Moore has returned from the Southside Hospital. She is confined to bed for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Shaw and family of Councial, N. C. came up last weekend and spent the weekend with her mother, Odell Chambers.

The Men's Club will be celebrating their anniversary the second Sunday at 4 p.m. Come out and let them know you love them, for they have done great work for the church since they organized. Men who haven't joined do so, it's a good way to spend some idle time and make it worthwhile.

The NACCP will meet at Mt. Pleasant the 2nd Monday night, Nov. 10 at 7:30. The Assembly will meet the Thursday before the second Sunday at Galilee. There will be a door prize. Be sure to come.

We are praying for the sick and shut in. We wish them a speedy recovery.

Class gets lecture

Jan Armentrout, a freshman at the Appomattox County High School, recently visited Mrs. Bryan's sixth grade at Appomattox Elementary to share her summer scouting experiences with them.

Jan told about white water canoeing, horseback riding in the Rockies, meeting girls from all over the United States, sightseeing, and learning many new activities. Of particular interest to the class was Jan's account of how she earned the money for such a trip.

Having guest speakers share their experiences makes school more interesting.
